PROGRAM NOTES
 December on HCC-TV Channels 96/41

New Programming... We at HCC-TV would like to meet or exceed your programming expectations. As we move into a new era of digital television, technology has made it easier to complement our regular programming with new and interesting shows from all over the United States, including: Hot and Cold, The Reading Lady, Kids-A-Cookin', Tracing Your Family Roots, 30 Odd Minutes, The Piano Guy, The Jook Joint, and Explore. These and other titles will be added to our programming schedule so please check out the new offerings and tell us what you think!

The Writing Life—In this encore edition of HoCoPoLitSo's The Writing Life, Seamus Heaney, who turned 70 years young in 2009 and is considered by many the greatest living English-language poet, (Los Angeles Times 2009) talks with George O'Brien about how the English and Irish influenced his work. They talk briefly about his books, Death of a Naturalist (1966), Station Island (1985) and The Haw Lantern (1987). Heaney reads "Digging," and two sonnets dedicated to his mother, "Alphabets," and "From the Republic of Conscience." Following questions from the Smith Theatre audience about his work, he reflects on the importance of Yeats. Seamus Heaney was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1995. The Writing Life airs Tuesdays at 11 a.m., 4 and 7 p.m., and Saturdays at 8 p.m.

In the Spotlight: The Horowitz Visual and Performing Arts Center at HCC—In our third episode, we'll give you a taste of what you can expect to see on campus this season. We meet internationally-renowned pianist, Anne Koscielniy, and speak with the HCC Music Faculty members responsible for bringing the year-long Beethoven Piano Sonata Series to campus. Under the guidance of Jenny Male, HCC's Musical Theatre program is thriving. We learn from her and Arts Collective Producer Sue Kramer exactly why it is the right time to feature our musical theatre students in a Student Arts Collective production of "A Chorus Line." The Rouse Company Foundation Gallery and Art Department Gallery feature various artists as they come together to showcase works inspired by bikes and biking. Becky Bafford sheds some light on the exhibit. We also get to know one of Howard County's favorite actors, Bruce Nelson, as he introduces us to Rep Stage's production of "Hysteria" and offers a glimpse of what is on the horizon. In the Spotlight airs Tuesdays at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 and 11:30 p.m., and Sundays at 7:30 p.m.

Baltimore Council on Foreign Affairs—Starting out the month is Ambassador Regina Victoria Maria Jones-Bos in The Netherlands and the United States: Two Countries, One Spirit: United by Values, History, and a Vision of the Future. Later in the month, Professor Robert O. Freedman presents Obama's Changing Policy Towards the Arab-Israeli Conflict. Baltimore Council on Foreign Affairs programming airs Mondays and Wednesdays from 5-6 p.m., and Sundays at 3 p.m.

News from the Dragon's Lair—Dragon's Lair Update is HCC's new half-hour sports show featuring highlights, analysis, and exclusive interviews with HCC's athletic coaches and department staff. This month, Athletic Director Diane Schumacher talks basketball with sophomore guard Kameron Crump and freshman Tiffany Walker. Plus, we look back at how well our fall teams played in this year's NJCAA Region XX tournament. Dragon's Lair Update airs Fridays at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 and 7:30 p.m., and Sundays at 6:30 p.m.

CineMaryland—On the newest edition of CineMaryland Reporter Elizabeth Homan looks at "Happy SAHD," a documentary featuring a trend that is becoming more and more common, the stay at home dad. We'll chat with renowned director Barry Levinson who recently asked his Hollywood friends about the relationship between celebrity and politics in his most recent film titled, "Poliwood." Reporter Rhonda Pence introduces us to Aaron Grady Shaw, a local teenager who recently appeared in the HBO series, "In Treatment." We'll also talk to independent filmmaker Kevin Walla about his new film "Worth," the story of a father and son finding a connection in the midst of tragedy and turmoil. CineMaryland airs Wednesdays at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 and 7:30 p.m., and on the weekends at 7:30 p.m.

Columbia Matters is a monthly program from the Columbia Association (CA) featuring highlights of Columbia's offerings. Columbia Matters airs Mondays at 11 a.m., 4 and 7 p.m., and Saturdays at 8:30 p.m.

Maryland Health Today is a half-hour program featuring in-depth interviews of doctors and researchers from the University of Maryland Medical Center and University of Maryland School of Medicine. Hosted by Ellen Beth Levitt, Maryland Health Today offers viewers the opportunity to learn the latest information about diagnosing, treating and preventing a variety of important health problems from leaders in the specialized care industry. Maryland Health Today airs Mondays at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 and 11:30 p.m., and Sundays at 8 p.m.
