PROGRAM NOTESNovember on HCC-TV Channels 96/41

New Programming... We at HCC-TV would like to meet or exceed your programming expectations. As we move into a new era of digital television, technology has made it easier to complement our regular programming with new and interesting shows from all over the United States, some of which being: Hot and Cold, The Reading Lady, Kids-A-Cookin', Tracing Your Family Roots, 30 Odd Minutes, The Piano Guy, The Jook Joint, and Explore. We will be adding these and other titles to our programming schedule so please check out the new offerings and tell us what you think!

The Writing Life—A Literary Gathering of Women: Exploring Themes In Literature (Debut 2009). Culturally diverse novelists Donna Hemans, Helen Elaine Lee and Thrity Umrigar talk with Dr. Tara Hart about their literary works, and how the differences and the similarities of their Caribbean, African-American and Indian experience inform their writing. Their respective novels include River Woman, The Serpent's Gift and The Space Between Us. The discussion touches on the discipline of writing, the destructive powers of community, the meaning of sustenance in the mother/daughter relationship and connecting the reader and the writer experience through literature. The writers' cultures play a strong role in this intimate discussion of writing and the art of literature. The Writing Life airs Tuesdays at 11 a.m., 4 and 7 p.m., and Saturdays at 8 p.m.

In the Spotlight: The Horowitz Visual and Performing Arts Center at HCC—In our third episode, we'll give you a taste of what you can expect to see on campus this season. We meet internationally-renowned pianist, Anne Koscielni, and speak with the HCC Music Faculty members responsible for bringing the year-long Beethoven Piano Sonata Series to campus. Under the guidance of Jenny Male, HCC's Musical Theatre program is thriving. We learn from her and Arts Collective Producer Sue Kramer exactly why it is the right time to feature our musical theatre students in a Student Arts Collective production of "A Chorus Line." The Rouse Company Foundation Gallery and Art Department Gallery feature various artists as they come together to showcase works inspired by bikes and biking. Becky Bafford sheds some light on the exhibit. We also get to know one of Howard County's favorite actors, Bruce Nelson, as he introduces us to Rep Stage's production of "Hysteria" and offers a glimpse of what is on the horizon. In the Spotlight airs Tuesdays at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 and 11:30 p.m., as well as Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

Baltimore Council on Foreign Affairs—Starting out the month is His Excellency Arturo Sarukjian Casamitjana, in United States-Mexico Relations: Distant Neighbors or Strategic Partners?, and later in the month a A Discussion of the Outcomes of the Fifth Summit of the Americas, with Ambassador Hector E. Morales. Baltimore Council on Foreign Affairs programming airs Mondays and Wednesdays from 5-6 p.m., and Sundays at 3 p.m.

Also new this month, News from the Dragon's Lair—Dragon's Lair Update is Howard Community College's new half-hour sports show featuring highlights, analysis, and exclusive interviews with HCC's athletic coaches and department staff. This month, Athletic Director Diane Schumacher interviews the men's soccer coach Stefan Dragovan and women's volleyball coach Matt Troy. Plus, our first look at the upcoming basketball season with women's head coach Tiffany Stewart and men's hoop coach Randolph Edison. Dragon's Lair Update airs Fridays at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 and 7:30 p.m.

CineMaryland—On the newest edition of CineMaryland Reporter Elizabeth Homan looks at "Happy SAHD," a documentary featuring a trend that is becoming more and more common, the stay at home dad. We'll chat with renowned director Barry Levinson who recently asked his Hollywood friends about the relationship between celebrity and politics in his most recent film titled, "Poliwood." Reporter Rhonda Pence introduces us to Aaron Grady Shaw, a local teenager who recently appeared in the HBO series, "In Treatment." We'll also talk to independent filmmaker Kevin Walla about his new film "Worth," the story of a father and son finding a connection in the midst of tragedy and turmoil. CineMaryland airs Wednesdays at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 and 7:30 p.m. and on the weekends at 7:30 p.m.

Columbia Matters is a monthly program from the Columbia Association (CA) that features the highlights of Columbia's offerings. Columbia Matters airs Mondays at 11 a.m., 4 and 7 p.m. and Saturdays at 8:30 p.m. Maryland Health Today is a half-hour program featuring in-depth interviews of doctors and researchers from the University of Maryland Medical Center and University of Maryland School of Medicine. Hosted by Ellen Beth Levitt, MD Health Today offers viewers the opportunity to learn the latest information about diagnosing, treating and preventing a variety of important health problems from leaders in the specialized care industry. Maryland Health Today airs Mondays at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 and 11:30 p.m., as well as Sunday at 8 p.m.
