PROGRAM NOTES
October on HCC-TV Channels 96/41

The Writing Life—A Literary Gathering of Women: The Craft of Writing (Debut 2009). In this debut edition of HoCoPoLitSo's "The Writing Life," three novelists, Donna Hemans, Helen Elaine Lee and Thrity Umrigar, whose cultures span the Caribbean, African-American and Indian experience, discuss crucial elements of the writing process with Dr. Tara Hart. Their respective works include River Woman, The Serpent's Gift and The Space Between Us. In this episode these authors engage in a dialogue about fiction's complex questions: conceptualizing plot as a writer; knowing when the work is finished, and confronting a reader's misinterpretations. The cultural dynamics of each of their works is widely explored and discussed. The Writing Life airs Tuesdays at 11 a.m., 4 and 7 p.m., and Saturdays at 8 p.m.

CineMaryland—On the newest edition of CineMaryland Reporter Elizabeth Homan looks at "Happy SAHD," a documentary featuring a trend that is becoming more and more common, the stay at home dad. We'll chat with renowned director Barry Levinson who recently asked his Hollywood friends about the relationship between celebrity and politics in his most recent film titled, "Poliwud." Reporter Rhonda Pence introduces us to Aaron Grady Shaw, a local teenager who recently appeared in the HBO series, "In Treatment." We'll also talk to independent filmmaker Kevin Walla about his new film "Worth," the story of a father and son finding a connection in the midst of tragedy and turmoil. CineMaryland airs Wednesdays at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 and 7:30 p.m. and on the weekends at 7:30 p.m.

Columbia Matters is a monthly program from the Columbia Association (CA) that features the highlights of Columbia's offerings. Columbia Matters airs Mondays at 11 a.m., 4 and 7 p.m. and Saturdays at 8:30 p.m.

Princeton University Lecture Series—Recorded Live on campus at Princeton University, HCC-TV presents a series of renowned speakers representing a variety of cultural, political and educational backgrounds. Our goal is to provide current topics, as well as those featuring refreshing and unique perspectives. Please join us Tuesdays and Thursdays from 5-6 p.m., as well as Sundays at 10 a.m.

Maryland Health Today is a half-hour program featuring in-depth interviews of doctors and researchers from the University of Maryland Medical Center and University of Maryland School of Medicine. Hosted by Ellen Beth Levitt, MD Health Today offers viewers the opportunity to learn the latest information about diagnosing, treating and preventing a variety of important health problems from leaders in the specialized care industry. Maryland Health Today airs Mondays at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 and 11:30 p.m., as well as Sunday at 8 p.m.

In the Spotlight: The Horowitz Visual and Performing Arts Center at HCC—In our second show, faculty members from HCC's visual arts department introduce us to their growing program. We'll get a rare look at the arts studios and a sneak peek at some of the high quality works we can see on display at the Spring 2009 Student Exhibit. Also in the spotlight is HCC's Student Arts Collective Improv Group, WHAT? We'll meet the students and staff that keep HCC laughing this season. On a different note, we'll introduce you to the leaders of HCC's Jazz Ensembles. Talented both on stage and in the classroom, the jazz faculty members spice things up in HCC's Music Department. We'll also here from Michael Stebbins about Rep Stage's recognition at the 2009 Helen Hayes Awards and talk with Director and HCC Acting Program Coordinator, Kasi Campbell, about the Rep Stage production, God's Ear. In the Spotlight airs Tuesdays at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 and 11:30 p.m., as well as Sunday at 7:30 p.m.
