PROGRAM NOTES

January on HCC-TV Channels 96/41

The Writing Life—A Literary Gathering of Women-Part 2: Themes in Literature (Encore 2009)—In this encore edition of HoCoPoLitSo's The Writing Life, novelists Donna Hemans, Helen Elaine Lee and Thrity Umrigar engage in an open conversation with professor Tara Hart, in which the differences and the similarities of their Caribbean, African-American and Indian experience inform their literary works. Their respective novels include River Woman, The Serpent's Gift and The Space Between Us. The discussion centers on the discipline of writing, the destructive powers of community, the meaning of sustenance in the mother/daughter relationship, and connecting the reader and the writer experience through literature. The unique aspects of each of their cultures play a strong role in this intimate discussion of writing and the art of literature. Aired Tuesday at 11 a.m., 4 and 7 p.m., and Saturday at 8 p.m.

News from the Dragon's Lair—Telly Award-winning Dragon's Lair Update is your destination for exclusive highlights and interviews with the coaches and student athletes of HCC. This month, Men's Basketball hosts perennial power Cecil in a Maryland JUCO conference battle. Head Coach Mike Smelkinson will join host Diane Schumacher in the studio to break down this year's team. Also this month, our Women's Basketball team heads to Northern Virginia for a Region 20 showdown. Head Coach Tiffany Stewart will join us to discuss her team's performance. In this month's "Dragon Close-Up," reporter Qayoe Jones will introduce you to another stand-out student athlete. Aired Friday at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 and 7:30 p.m., and Sunday at 6:30 p.m.

In the Spotlight: Horowitz Center for Performing Arts—Focuses on the people behind the scenes and beyond the canvas. In our 6th edition of In the Spotlight, Angela Phillips introduces us to the HCC Music Department's new Guest Artist Series. Actor Nigel Reed talks about his role in Rep Stage's production of Barrymore. Ray Hoffmann sits down with artist Aline Feldman to discuss her exhibit in The Rouse Company Foundation Gallery. We'll also speak with Michael Stebbins, director of the fall student production of Spring's Awakening, and Grace Anastasiadis spotlights HCC's International Film Festival. Aired Tuesday at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 and 7:30 p.m., and Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

The Howard County Show—Elizabeth Bobo has served Howard County as a County Council person, the first Woman County Executive in Maryland, and now as a Delegate to the Maryland General Assembly representing District 12B. HCC Arts and Humanities Chair Valerie Lash visits with Delegate Bobo on this edition of The Howard County Show. They will look back at Bobo's past accomplishments and highlight the issues that are important to Howard County now. Aired Thursday at 11 a.m., 4 and 7 p.m., and Saturday at 12 noon.

In Focus: Howard Community College—Hosted by HCC President, Dr. Kate Hetherington, In Focus is a half-hour program that features our community offerings and events . . . on and around the HCC Campus, with candid interviews, student opinions, commentary from administrators and faculty, and informative outlooks from community members. This month, we'll discuss Hospitality and Culinary Management with guests Vinnie Rege, Ph.D. (ABD), M.S. CHE, Director, Hospitality and Culinary Management Program; Chef Gregory Wentz, CEC, Coordinator, Culinary Management Program; Jodi Fisher, M.G.A., Assistant Professor, Hospitality and Culinary Management Program; and HCC students Evan Heim and Adrienne Dankwa. Aired Wednesday at 11 a.m., 4 and 7 p.m., and Saturday at 7 p.m.

CineMaryland—On our Fall edition of CineMaryland: Although the critically acclaimed series has ended, The Wire is still garnering new audiences. Reporter Lisa Scott explains how Johns Hopkins University is using the show as a teaching tool. CineMaryland's Tracie Jules catches up with producer Lee Doll on the set of his local series, The Adventures of Louanna Lee. Independent filmmaker Jason Baustin sits down with reporter Elizabeth Homan to talk about the challenges and rewards of trying to make it in the industry, and we'll find out more about The Megaphone Project, a Baltimore based organization that uses media production to help advocate for underserved communities. Aired Wednesday at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 and 7:30 p.m., and Saturday at 7:30 p.m.
