

COURSE OUTLINE

ARTT-247

Photojournalism I

3 Semester Hours

HOWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Description

This course will teach the fundamental principles of photojournalism covering the history of photojournalism, freedom of the press, ethics in journalism and the power of the image in society. Practical applications involving the various types of journalistic photography will be covered. Technical and aesthetic concerns will also be addressed. Students must have a 35mm fully adjustable SLR camera. Prerequisites: ARTT-142 or ARTT-146. (4.5 hours weekly).

Overall Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Define and apply the specialized vocabulary used in photojournalism.
2. Identify the historical perspectives of photojournalism.
3. Describe and utilize picture editing skills.
4. Utilize digital imaging skills.
5. Comprehend and apply the concept of “deadline” in making and completing assignments.
6. Demonstrate and apply photojournalistic techniques for feature photographs, style photographs, sports photographs, flash portrait photographs, and news photographs.
7. Apply appropriate and accurate captions to all photojournalistic images.
8. Keep a journal of photojournalistic images from various publications.
9. Identify various ethical problems in photojournalism.
10. Critique images for content, quality, and composition.
11. Evaluate his/her images to be submitted in a final portfolio.

Major Topics

- I. History of Photojournalism
- II. Ethics in Photojournalism
- III. Picture Editing
- IV. Digital Photography/Photo Shop Review
- V. Portraits with Flash
- VI. Feature Photography
- VII. Sports Photography
- VIII. Style Photography
- IX. News Photography
- X. The Photo Story/Essay
- XI. Careers in Photography
- XII. Deadlines and Captions

Course Requirements

Grading/exams: Grading procedures will be determined by the individual faculty member but will include the following:

- There will be individual photographic assignments and a portfolio of works that will be submitted at the end of the semester.
- Writing: A journal will be kept by each student keeping an account of each projects details and experiences.

Other Course Information

This course is a Fine Arts, Humanities, and an Arts and Sciences elective.