

Welcome!

to the Underrepresented Student Scholarship Online Database

External (Outside) Scholarship Resources

We encourage all students to seek external (outside) scholarships to assist with funding for college. To assist with your scholarship search we have compiled a database of scholarships available to underrepresented students. Each group has a specific worksheet which you can access below by selecting the corresponding tab.

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) warns students and their families to take caution when using scholarship search companies. Students should beware of any organization that guarantees or promises scholarships or grants, or charges a fee to search or apply for scholarships. For more information, or to report a scam, visit the FTC's \$cholarship \$cams website.

Some Quick Tips:

1. Researching scholarships can be tough, bouncing from website to website. To make your search a bit easier and not interrupt the work you already have achieved, right click on the link corresponding with the scholarship you would like to inquire about and Select "Open in New Tab."
2. Don't limit your search to our database! There are many other online resources that are available out there. Some that we like are:

- The College Board's Scholarship Search
