

Buckley Educational Amendment Act

The Buckley Educational Amendment Act simply states that all students' grades are private and confidential and cannot be disclosed without the students' written permission.

To determine eligibility based on NJCAA (National Junior College Athletic Association) standards, the athletic department needs your permission to release your academic records. This includes requests for progress reports by faculty disclosing your academic progress and attendance records throughout your entire school year to determine your eligibility status.

Print Name _____

Signature _____

Date _____