For the Record	4/4/2011 1:18pm	Nursing Bldg. Rear/Smoking Area	D. Thomas

On April 4, 2011 at approximately 1:17pm, Security was dispatched to the Nursing building pond side smoking section for a report of a student smoking marijuana on campus grounds. Once Security arrived, we were informed by a Science Technology staff member that an unknown male was pacing back and forth around the Drier Stage smoking a very strong odor producing substance which she believed to be marijuana. A scan of the immediate area turned up no signs of the male. Security then returned to the dispatch center to see if we could get a visual of the male individual. Investigation is ongoing and there is no more information to report at this time.

Damaged Property	4/5/2011 9:30am	Parking Lot J	A. Brereton

On Tuesday, April 05, 2011 at approximately 9:30am, Security was in overflow parking lot-J. While on parking detail, a student approached Security and stated that a girl parked beside her vehicle a gray, Hyundai Elantra and hit the passenger side door of the Elantra as they got out of their car which was a black, Mazda CX-9. When the student told the individual that she just hit her vehicle, the individual replied with "there is no dent on your car." Then the student explained to Security that the girl then hurried away, out of the parking lot and towards the buildings on campus. After the student gathered her belongings she went to check the passenger side of her car and noticed a dent at the rear of her front passenger door, and immediately reported the situation to Security. The student then called the Howard County Police Department to be present at the scene. Security immediately notified dispatch that Howard County Police were called to be present in lot J overflow. A Howard County Police Officer arrived at approximately 9:43am and took over the situation. At approximately 9:50am the Police Officer left the campus and the student then went to class. There is no further information to report at this time.

For the Record	4/6/2011 6:30pm	RCF Bldg.	C. Richardson
On Wednesday, April 06, 2011 at approximately 6:30pm, Security responded to a call concerning a burning smell coming from the RCF building. Upon arrival, there was a strong odor of burning food filling the entire lobby area. Security and Plant Operations, took each level and swept the building in search of the source. Security located the source of the smell coming from RCF-362. A staff member advised that there was food in the microwave which had overcooked. When he opened the door of their office the smell poured out into the rest of the building. The staff member turned the microwave off and unplugged the unit. Plant Operations arrived and swept the rest of the office to ensure no further damage had occurred. Fans were placed on several floors and both the 1st and 2nd floor main doors were opened to assist in dissipating the odor. No fire alarms activated and it was determined by Plant Operations and Security that there was no need to contact the fire department.

Disorderly Conduct	4/13/2011 9:25am	Parking Garage	D. Thomas
On April 13, 2011, at approximately 9:17am, Security was on post on the 3rd level of the parking garage when they encountered a driver of a black Nissan 350Z attempting to park in a reserved space which required a special permit. Security approached the driver and informed him that he needed to have a special permit to park there. The student responded "Oh here it is", referring to his purple student decal. Security then informed the student that the space was reserved for permits given out from the Office of the President and at which point the student started a verbal confrontation with the Security officer. The student then walked away from his vehicle. The officer advised the student for the third time, that he needed to move his vehicle because it will be cited and can be possibly be towed. The student then began another verbal confrontation with the officer. Security then notified Dispatch to advise the Sargeant of the situation. The driver saw that his car was in jeopardy of getting cited and or towed so he got into his vehicle and was getting ready to pull off when the Sargeant arrived. The Security officer asked the student to pull over to the side so he would not hinder the flow of traffic. The Sargeant asked the driver for his ID. The student handed his Maryland Driver's License. The student stated to the Sargeant, "Let me see your ID", which the Sargeant showed the student his college Security ID. After the individual gave the Sargeant his Driver's License, the Sargeant asked the individual for his student ID. The student stated, "I don't have it, but we need to wrap this up because I have a class. No further information provided.
