Unwanted Touching	3/24/2008 5:30pm	Café on the Quad	Lt.Khan
Summary
On date and time stated above, three individuals came to the security office complaining of being harassed by a male, approx. 5'5 with short black hair and glasses. One individual stated that she was sitting in the cafeteria with her boyfriend when a male sat close beside her. He tried to start a conversation and then proceeded to rub his knee against hers. The boyfriend excused himself and his girlfriend, and they left the café. Then the male individual moved to the table where another individual was sitting, when he tried to get close to her, she left and went to tell her friend, who recognized him from Wilde Lake High School. The individuals came to the security department to confirm the identity of the suspect. Security contacted the suspect and asked him what he knew about the incident, and he seemed nervous and evasive, later stating that he did not mean to do it.
