Theft	11/2/2011 4:40pm	Athletics & Fitness Center	M. Jones

On Wednesday, November 2, 2011, at approximately 4:40pm, while conducting mobile rounds on Lot J, Security was dispatched to the Athletic and fitness center for stolen property report. Upon arrival to the scene, Security was approached by two students stating that someone went through their property, a black book bag and pink book bag. Their belongings were being held in the women's locker room in day locker #9 which was left unsecured. After questioning the students, they stated that they arrived to Athletic and fitness center at 3:45pm and noticed their property had been messed with and missing at 4:30pm after returning from the weight room. The one student stated that none of her belongings were missing from her pink book bag; they just searched through her bag. The second student stated that they emptied out her property from her black book bag which was taken along with her blue jacket, then placed all her books back inside the locker. Upon review of the video footage, dispatch was unable to capture any video of the incident or anyone walking out of the ladies locker room with a black book bag or blue jacket. No further information to provide at this time.

Missing Bike	11/3/2011 9:45pm	HR Bldg.	L. Houston

At approximately 9:45pm on Thursday, November 3, 2011, Security was dispatched to the RCF circle to meet a student in reference to a possible theft. The student stated that he parked his green Mongoose bike at approximately 10:20pm in front of the Hickory Ridge building and secured the bike with a cable bike lock. At approximately 10:30pm, he returned and found that his bike was not at the bike rack. At 10:45pm, he reported to security to file an incident report. Upon being interviewed by the Security Sergeant, the student stated that he secured the bike by locking one end of the cable through the bike rack and the other end through the wheel spokes but not through the frame of the bike. Security escorted the student to the location where he parked his bike. Security examined the cable bike lock that was still secured to the bike rack. Security found no cuts or damages to the cable bike lock or the bike rack. Dispatch attempted to locate the incident via video but was unable to view the area due to the bike rack being out of camera range. Security asked the student if he would like to file a report with Howard County Police and he stated that he did not wish to do so at this time.

Medical Emergency	11/7/2011 12:35pm	RCF Bldg.	O. Thomas

On Monday, November 7, 2011 at approximately 12:35p.m, Security was on the way to the Café when they were approached by a student who stated that her friend was in pain and seated on the floor in the RCF lobby suffering from stomach cramps. Security approached the individual who identified herself as a non-HCC student. Security asked the individual if she was able to lift herself up and she stated that she could not. The female student stated that her friend had gone to the restroom and when she returned to the RCF lobby area, she bent over in pain and collapsed to the floor. The female student also stated that her friend had taken two 200 milligram ibuprofen tablets. Security asked the female individual if she was able to stand so that Security could let her sit down in the wheel chair they had provided for her, and she replied that she was in too much pain to move. The individual denied needing any medical attention. The student contacted the sister to the individual. Upon arrival of the sister to the RCF lobby, she gave security permission to call 911 for medical assistance. At 12:49p.m, Howard County emergency services were called and arrived a short time after at 12:52p.m. HCFD ambulance #55 and Rescue Engine# 7 arrived at the RCF Circle to transport the individual. At 1:10p.m, the individual was transported to Howard General Hospital. The Crisis Communication Manager was notified of the incident. No further information to report at this time.

Alcohol Related	11/15/2011 2:00pm	RCF Bldg. 1 st Floor	T. Le

On Tuesday, November 15, 2011 at approximately 2:00pm, Security was walking into the restroom located in the RCF building, first floor, when they observed an individual at the sink holding a red Starbucks cup and a green bottle. Security heard a derogatory term as they turned and walked towards the individual and watched him throw the items away. Security reached into the trash can and pulled out a red Starbucks cup and a green bottle of Heineken. Security radioed to the Security Sergeant to assist in the restroom. Security asked the individual if he was a student on campus, which he stated yes. Security advised the student that they needed his student ID. The individual began to beg to not report him. Security advised the individual that he was observed attempting to pour alcohol into a Starbucks cup until he saw security personnel and threw it away. Security again asked the student for his identification and he began to hesitate. Security advised the student that having alcohol on campus was not authorized, and that it is a student code of conduct violation. The individual continued to beg Security not to write him up and continued to refuse to show his ID. Security asked for his ID again and again. The individual gave up his student ID after numerous attempts. The student was identified with his HCC student ID and continued to beg to not get in trouble. Security pulled the individual into the security office for his statement. Security called Student Services to advise of the current situation.

Video footage shows at approximately 1:50pm, the student entering the RCF first floor restroom. Pictures of the items and video footage are attached with the original report.

Injury	11/15/2011 4:40pm	HVPA Lobby	O.Vassiliev

On Tuesday, November 15, 2011 at approximately 4:40pm, Security was dispatched to the HVPA lobby in regards to a medical emergency. Upon arrival, Security was approached by the HCC Box Office Staff Member who directed Security to the student in need of assistance. The student had fallen and was seated in chair outside the Smith Theater. She stated that she had fallen while walking down the second floor stairwell of Duncan Hall. After falling, she stated that she walked across the quad from Duncan Hall to HVPA. Another student offered to assist her to the HVPA lobby. He stated that he advised her to sit down in a chair in front of the Smith Theatre. He then notified the staff member who, in turn, contacted security for dispatch. Security asked the student if she needed any medical assistance. The student declined medical attention and stated that she did not need an ambulance. She stated, however, that she would not be able to walk or put pressure on her left foot without experiencing pain. Additional Security officers arrived to the scene at approximately 4:43pm. The student informed Security that her brother would be coming to pick her up from HCC. As security stood by with the student, another officer went to the Nursing building to obtain a wheel chair. The Security Sergeant obtained a cold compress and brought it back to the student. When Security returned with the wheelchair, the Security Sergeant wheeled the student to the HVPA handicap parking where her brother picked her up. She left campus in her brother's Toyota Camry at approximately 5:00pm. Upon viewing footage, there were no cameras with visibility of the area where the student had fallen.

Injury	11/15/2011 11:40pm	RCF Building	C. Richardson

On 11/15/2011 at approximately 11:40pm, an Environmental Services staff member reported to the RCF Security office complaining of an injury she sustained while performing her duties. Security took the report and observed that the staff member had a slight abrasion on her right middle finger halfway up towards the knuckle. The staff member stated that after cleaning the 3rd floor rest room in the RCF building, she removed the rubber doorstep with her left hand while holding the door with her right hand. When the door began to close, her right hand got caught in the door opening injuring her middle finger. Security asked if she needed medical attention, but she declined stating that she was able to move all fingers freely and that she just needed a wrap from the medical cabinet in the RCF security office. The Environmental Services supervisor arrived on scene and assisted the staff member with placing a wrap on her finger. She then advised that she would be able to continue her duties, and the supervisor advised that he would need a copy of the report for their records. No further information to report at this time.

Disturbance	11/16/2011 5:15pm	N200	C. Richardson

On Wednesday, November 16, 2011 at approximately 5:15pm, Security responded to an incident in room N200. Security met with the Associate Professor of Health Sciences in her office. She advised Security that while teaching her class (RADT 111) at approximately 9:40am, she had a verbal altercation with a male Asian student. The student became upset when the professor pointed out that he was not using the textbook from which she was teaching. She stated that the student began aggressively challenging her on the material. Shortly thereafter, the professor released the class for a break and during which time, the student came into her office yelling out at her by her first name and asking her "where do you live?" The professor said that she asked him what he meant but he continued to ask the same question and made several threatening statements to her. After the student finished talking to her, she resumed the class, but then contacted security at her first opportunity. She stated that although he did not make another outburst in class, she was concerned in case he decided to do something after class was over. The professor's statement is attached to this report. She also included a written statement of one of the other students, who observed this student's behavior.

For the Record	11/22/2011 6:06pm	HVPA Loading Dock	O.Vassiliev

On Tuesday 11/22/11, at approximately 6:06pm, Security was dispatched to the HVPA loading dock to investigate a report of a group of individuals spray painting the HVPA loading dock area. When Security arrived at the scene, Security observed a group of people standing around a cardboard box with its top and front cut out. The box appeared to be in the process of being spray painted. The ground of the loading dock area had many spray paint outlines from others. Security was already speaking with the complainant, a Faculty member, when the other officer arrived on the scene. The Faculty member stated that she had called security because she observed a group of individuals who appeared to be spray painting the ground of the HVPA loading dock area. She stated that she approached the individuals prior to security's arrival. She stated that she told the individuals that they were not permitted to spray paint in the area and that she had notified security and the Arts and Humanities Division Office. Security spoke with a few of the individuals involved in the spray painting of the box. One of whom was another faculty member. The faculty member stated that she was the instructor of a Fine Arts class held in HVPA-155. She stated that the group of individuals, who were all members of her class, were there to spray paint a cardboard stage for their "Puppet Theater" project. She also stated that she was permitted to use this area for this purpose, and she had used this area for this purpose numerous times in the past. The faculty member went on to state, that when the other faculty member approached her and her students, the other faculty member was rude and disrespectful to her and her students. Security also spoke with a student in the group. The student stated that they were not responsible of all of the spray paint marks on the ground of the HVPA loading dock. She pointed out to Security the spray paint mark that they were responsible for. The mark was approximately 1 inch thick, 2 foot long and green in color. A picture was taken of the spray paint mark. The student also stated, in corroboration with the faculty member's statement, that when the other faculty member approached the group, she was rude and disrespectful to them. The students were allowed to continue spray painting there project on the HVPA loading dock. Security left the scene at approximately 6:20pm. Picture attached with report. No further information pertaining to this incident is available at this time.
