

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT between
HOWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE and
UNIVERSITY OF BALTIMORE
ROBERT G. MERRICK SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Howard Community College and the University of Baltimore recognize the need and importance of facilitating the transfer of students from Howard Community College to the University of Baltimore as these students pursue their educational goals. To enhance this transition, a formal articulation agreement between Howard Community College and the University of Baltimore is being established. It is based on a thorough review of the General Education Core Curriculum at Howard Community College and the University of Baltimore in parallel Business Administration programs.

ACADEMIC AGREEMENTS

- A. A Howard Community College student will be required to complete the requirements for an Associate of Arts Degree with a minimum of a 2.0 Quality Point Average (QPA) on a four point scale.

The University of Baltimore will:

1. have all articulated credits applied to the major, and may complete a Bachelor's degree at the University of Baltimore within two years (four semesters).
2. award students full junior status with the completion of a minimum of 56 credit hours earned at Howard Community College.
3. accept the transfer student's G.P.A. as calculated by Howard Community College.
4. honor the Howard Community College Transcript Evaluation Process.

- B. Appointed institutional representatives at Howard Community College and the University of Baltimore will insure that appropriate personnel in their respective colleges are aware of this agreement, including the admissions and advising staffs, transfer coordinators and appropriate faculty and deans.

- C. Appointed institutional representatives from Howard Community College and University of Baltimore will determine course-by-course equivalencies to facilitate the transfer of students from Howard Community College to the University of Baltimore.

STUDENT SERVICES

- A. Students will be treated on an equal basis with native students in regards to the award and distribution of financial aid, campus housing, course selection, registration and other student services.
- B. The University of Baltimore will provide information and assistance to students interested in matriculating to the University of Baltimore at Howard Community College.
- C. Howard Community College will distribute information regarding this articulation agreement to Howard Community College students interested in pursuing a Bachelor's degree in business.
