Welcome to the HESI A2

Test Information and Accessing the Test

General Information

- Please make sure you have placed all your belongings in your locker, including watches, fitness bands, and everything from your pockets. Cell phones should be completely powered off.
- You will not be allowed access to your personal belongings at any point once you begin your test.
- If you need to use the restroom, please come to the front desk. For reasons of academic integrity, only one person at a time may leave the room. Please note that your time will continue to run during your break. Please reenter the room following the same route you used when checking in.
- If you have any questions, please see a proctor for assistance; your test will be terminated if you are found talking to anyone other than a proctor during the test.

Test Information

- Topics covered include reading, comprehension, grammar, vocab and knowledge, biology, chemistry, A&P, and math.
- Total time limit is 5 hours (10 hours for students with a documented accommodation).
- Individual tests are not timed, so pace yourself accordingly.
- Take the Personality and Learning style sections lasts as these sections do not count towards your score.
- When you are finished, please bring your scrap paper, calculator and pencils out of the room and return them to the proctor. Once you collect your belongings from your locker, please return the key to the box on the desk.
- Later in the day, make sure to check your HCC email for instruction on how to access your score report and next steps.
- A passing score is 70% or higher.

Helpful Hints and Materials

Helpful Hints

- You cannot skip any of the questions
- Once you submit an answer you cannot go back to review the question or change your answer
- If a question requires you to type a response, you cannot backspace. You must highlight the text and press delete to change your answer

Provided Materials

How to get to your exam

When you click on the link at the end of this presentation, you will be directed to the login page

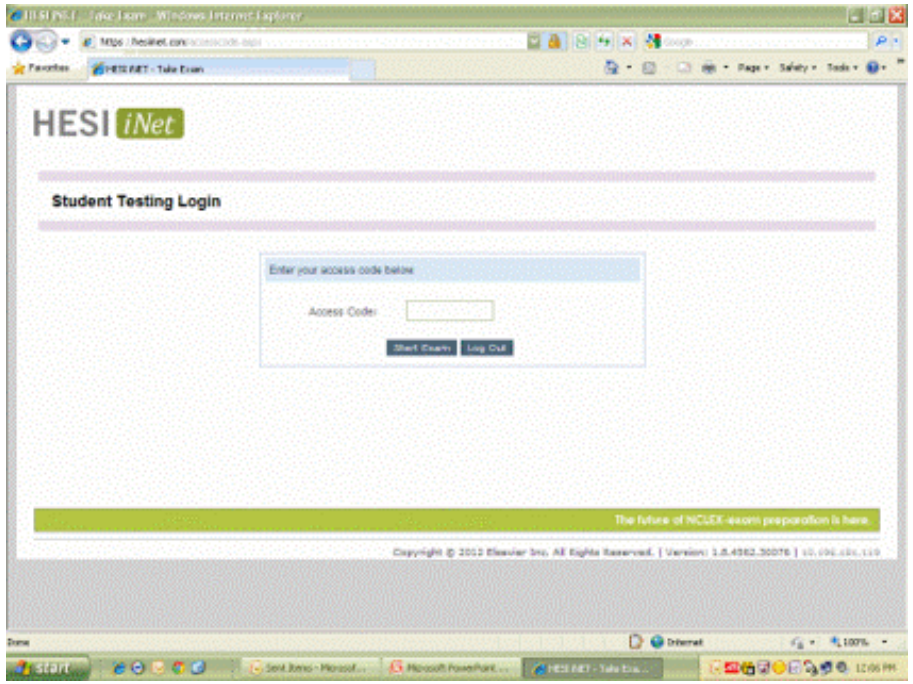

Sign in screen

- This is where you will enter your Evolve username and password.
- Remember you must sign in with your username, NOT your email.
- If you try to sign in multiple times unsuccessfully, you will be asked to provide your name and email address to get into your test. Do not try to access your account from your computer at this time.
- If this occurs, contact Elsevier after testing to consolidate your accounts.

Access Code

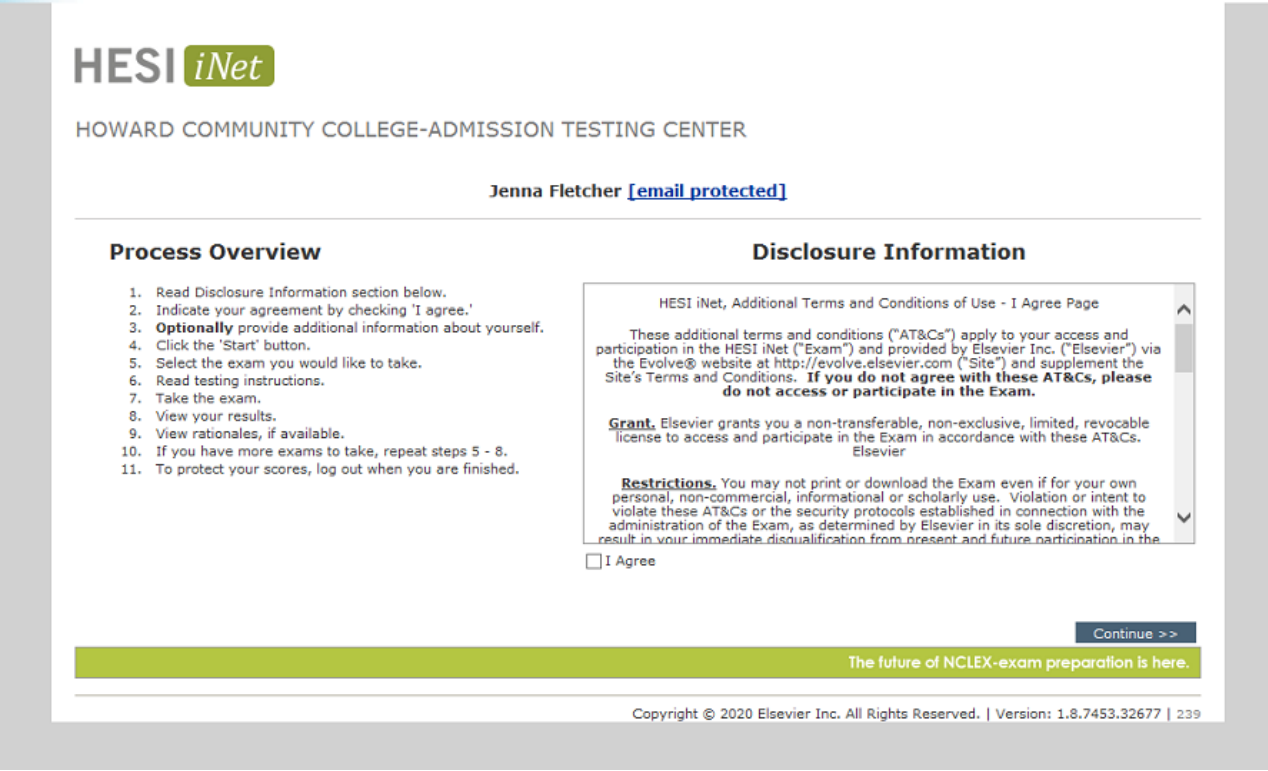

- When you get to this screen, please raise your hand.
- The proctor will enter your access code and launch your exam.
- Please be patient while the proctor puts in your information and allow them to control your screen.

When you get to this screen, click on the continue button at the bottom of your screen to continue

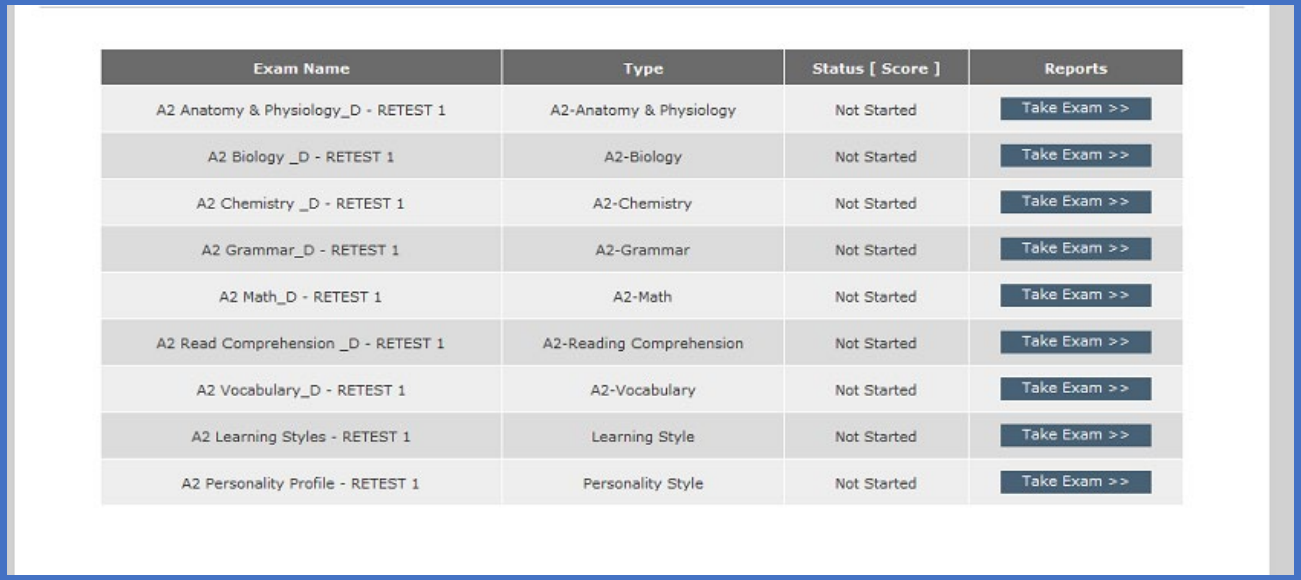

Disclosure and Optional Information

- Read over the disclosure agreement and click the “I Agree” box
- Enter the optional information if you would like
- Hit continue

Your onscreen calculator will look like this. You can hide it by clicking on hide calculator

Common Issues and what to do?

Unable to move onto the next question?

- If you have answered a question and are unable to move onto your next question AND you notice the time is still running
- What to do….
  - Just be patient, you should be able to move onto your next question shortly.
  - Do not keep pressing the continue button as this may make matters worse

Kicked out of exam?

- If you have been on a screen for a very long time or take an extended break, the lockdown browser will close and you will be kicked out of your exam
- If you accidently kick the computer cord or experience other technical issues
- What to do….
  - Don’t panic. The test is saved and we will be able to reenter your access code. Allow our proctor to get you back into your exam once you reenter your username and password

You are ready to begin!
